Who Will Help?

The present jail is so insufficient and its position so offensive that the following private citizens have volunteered to give the amounts opposite their names to assist the county in moving it and building a new one on another site:

J. A. Howard, $10 00
S. A. Howard, 1 00
Others who wish to contribute to aid in the desired object will please hand us their names and amounts.

LOCALS.

—Monte Cristo at Atkins' Hall tomorrow night.

—East Lynne at Atkins' Hall on Saturday night.

—Cotton sold yesterday for 95-8 cents. What market in the State can beat it for the people of this town?

—Postmaster Ward requests us to say that all who wish money orders should call before 4 o'clock p. m. to get them.

—We see that the Rev. J. T. Kewall has been appointed Presiding Elder of the Charleston District of the Missouri M. E. Conference.

—The Eastern Carolina Agricultural Fair is going on at Goldsboro this week. We understand that several Samponians have entered exhibits.

—Through an oversight quite a blunder was made in setting up the type for W. A. Johnson's ad last week. It appears correct in this issue.

—A brick pavement is being placed in front of M. Hanstein's on Wall Street. We hope soon to see it extended the entire length of the street.

—We are sorry to learn that our venerable townsman, Mr. W. H. Moore, who has been suffering with cancer for several months is growing much worse.

—Mr. Allen Daughtry, of Westbrook's township, represented Sampon County at the meeting of the Confederate Veterans Association at Raleigh during the Fair.

—Mr. W. L. Jones who has for some time been kindly furnishing us with the "Magnolia Blooms," has accepted a position with Mr. A. H. Holmes of Wilmington. We wish him success in his new field of labor.

—The Champion Food offered as a premium at our coming Fair by Messrs. Stevenson & Taylor of Wilmington is worth $20 instead of $10 as published in last issue. See it advertised in this issue.

—A detachment of three United States soldiers was here Sunday, having come from Atlanta, Ga. we are told, in pursuit of a man from this county who some months ago entered in the services and soon after deserted. The deserter had not been captured at last accounts.

—The Carrie Stanley Dramatic Company play two nights in Atkins Hall this week—Friday and Saturday. On Friday night Alexander Dumas popular play, Monte Cristo, will be rendered and on Saturday night East Lynne. The troupe consists of twelve characters and will doubtless have full house both nights.

One third of a million butter dishes were shipped at one time a few days since by the Carolina Veneer Works. We understand that the enterprising and public spirited proprietor will put in enough additional machines at an early day to enable him to ship that number each week. The dishes are in great demand and are bringing a handsome price.

—The Carrie Stanley Company, which will hold forth in Atkins' Hall Friday and Saturday nights, has been in Goldsboro during the Fair this week. The Goldsboro papers and the correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger speak of the company in terms of high praise. They say that the comedies are dashing and brim full of life and fun, moving the audiences alternately to tears and smiles.

—Clinton is still beating all markets on cotton. It is worth 94 cents in Wilmington to-day, it is quoted at 94 here, while several bales here sold for 95-8. Now, considering that it costs nearly $2.00 to ship and sell a bale of cotton in Wilmington from this point, cotton is worth about 10 cents here, relative to the Wilmington market. This fact is being appreciated in this whole section; for cotton sold here yesterday from Johnston and other adjoining counties.

—Atkins' Hall Friday and Saturday nights! Capt. Smith, of this office, says that the Carrie Stanley Company is a good one. He says that when East Lynne, which will be played Saturday night, first came before the foot-lights in Washington City, in the fifties, that it had a run of thirty-six consecutive nights, and then stopped only because the theatre burned, while Uncle Tom's Cabin had a run of only twenty nights. The famous play, Monte Cristo, will come Friday night.

—Every household should be visited once a week by at least one family newspaper. No father can afford to raise up his children without putting this great educator of the people into their hands, even though he cannot or does not read himself. And what paper should he take? His home paper first, and if he is able, and so desires, then others—first of them the paper of his church. It is said—and we fear it is a sad fact—that North Carolina stands near the bottom in the scale of education. Then how shall she be able to rise? One means would be to put good newspapers into the hands of our little boys and girls—not the big cheap sensational papers, filled with demoralizing details of every crime, but papers that contain the news of the country in decent language. This means will do more for popular education than any other that costs so little. The tuition for a whole year is rarely more than $1.50.

TURKEY.

A little colored boy got his hand caught in Mr. John Blanchard's cane mill while grinding cane at Mrs. Abner Faison's, on last Friday. His hand was so badly mangled as to necessitate amputation at the wrist. The operation was performed by Dr. Kennedy, of Warsaw.

FRANKLIN.

The Construction train of the C. F. & Y. V. Railway is here.

The magnificent iron bridge, fifty feet above low later, with a span of 125 feet, is already completed and painted red, as the company will doubtless paint the "City by the Sea," when the line to Fayetteville is finished. The railroad authorities will use convicts after the construction trains pass Black River, as the track-laying force of free colored laborers spend the greater portion of their time at "big preachings," and the impression is that this force labors six days and "rests on the seventh day." Thirty-one miles of the track will be ready for use in ten days. Hoping that the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad may prove a bonanza to our good old county so long with a line of railroad running the entire length of the county, I am yours, &c., FRANKLIN.

MINGO.

The Rev. L. J. Moore filled his regular appointment at Bethesda on Sunday last.

Miss Rebecca Berrie, of Davidson county, who has been visiting at Goldsboro, has returned to this neighborhood.

The Rev. Mr. Bland, who is principal of Mingo High School has stopped this week to attend the Association.

We had the pleasure of attending a very interesting and pleasant Sunday School celebration at Hickory Grove last Saturday. Ex-Representative J. A. Beaman is the superintendent.

The church at that place was organized in 1879 and Rev. Mr. John Bell is now the pastor. The Sunday School has been regularly organized for about three years. During the last year about eighty-five pupils have been enrolled, who have done excellent work under their active superintendent and delightful teacher.

The exercises consisted of speeches and essays, most of which we missed by being late, though heard that they were all very good. An abundant dinner was spread on a long table, which must have been at least one hundred and thirty feet in length.

In the afternoon the Sabbath School was treated to an appropriate and forcible address by Mr. W. S. Thomson, the Mayor of Clinton, who was the invited speaker for the occasion. His subject was "The Social Parasite." Mr. Thomson also delivered the prizes, the first of which was awarded to Bettie Brown, the second to Callie Herring, the third to Freddie Gilbert. The editor of THE CAUCASIAN was called for, who responded with a few remarks.

LITTON COHARIE.

Dr. J. F. Highsmith has gone to Fayetteville, where he will practice his profession. He is a promising young physician and we regret to lose him. We predict a bright future for him in Fayetteville.

LISBON.

There is a sale of town lots at Garland, the station on the C. F. & Y. V. railroad to-day. We hope for a rapid development of this section, which will nurture Garland into a thriving town.

SOUTH CLINTON.

The Rev. Mr. Turner, of Clinton, held services last Sunday at Chesnut's school house, five miles east of Clinton, on the Kirby Bridge road. He has given up St. Paul's Church in Clinton to devote more time to his school, but will continue to preach at Chesnut's school house every 3rd Sunday.

DESMAL.

Mr. E. M. Hall has an okra plant which measures 12 feet, 7 inches in height, and had 104 well grown pods cut from its branches and when early frost came it had 18 blossoms. There are limbs on the stalk 9 feet long.

Mr. R. W. Howard, who has been quite sick, is convalescing and we hope that he will soon be able to be out again. He is being treated by our estimable physician, Dr. T. C. Bullock.

Clement School is yet ahead of any similar school in the county, and yet some people think this a "gloomy section," owing to the name of our township—Dismal.

The Sunday School at Salem Church went into winter quarters on the 11th inst.

The event was signified by a celebration, which was a very enjoyable affair. The singing was good, the dinner was excellent, but, alas, the invited speakers failed to appear. The editor of THE CAUCASIAN being present was called on, however. Appropriate and timely remarks were made by Mr. J. E. Moward, Mr. Erastus Cooper, the superintendent, and others. [This item should have appeared last week, but we expected some correspondent to furnish it.—Ed.]

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.

The school at Woodland is still flourishing. There are thirty-six pupils in attendance.

There is now a handsome bridge across Crane Creek at its most public crossing, erected at the expense of the progressive community in which it stands.

COMPETITIVE GAME HUNT.

Citizens vs. Military, Thursday, October 31st, 1889.

A competitive game hunt between the members of the Sampson Light Infantry and an equal number of citizens has been arranged to take place on Thursday, October 31st, under the following conditions:

On Thursday morning at sunrise the representatives of both military and citizens shall take the field and no man shall return in his score any game that was not killed by himself between the hours of sunrise on Thursday, the 31st, and the following sunset.

The above rules not to apply to opossums or other game usually captured by night, which shall be caught during Thursday night. The count shall be estimated by the following values which have been agreed upon by the committee:

Deer, 1000; wild turkey, 250; wild duck, 50; opossum, 10; coon, 10; squirrel, wood-cock, or snipe, 5; partridge, 4; rabbit, 3; dove, 2; robin, or lark, 1, and other birds one-half. All game killed shall be delivered dressed to the committee in Clinton by 10 o'clock A. M., on Friday following, where it will be prepared for the game supper Friday night.

All members of the company and all citizens are entitled to compete and the six representatives of the company having the highest scores shall be placed against the six representatives of the citizens having the highest scores—these to be the champions of their respective sides. On Friday night the game and oyster supper will be served at some suitable place in town.

K. of H. Banquet.

The fantastic and feathered champions of ancient chivalry bedecked themselves in glittering armor and carried the cross-hilted sword. Their cruel and heartless creed is presented in the following strain as twanged on the harp by the gay minstrel of old:

For a baron bold,
And knight of old,
And a lord of high degree;
In my castle hold
My dears are told
In tales of chivalry.
Of all my crimes I know not which
Dost take my fancy more;
To slay my foe and rob the rich,
Or tax and grind the poor.

Don Quixote's blade
Hath laughter made,
Munchausen's tale is true;
When I parade
I always wade
Kneec-deep in hostile gore.

Not so with the modern knight, who is a "gentleman of statelike port," a Knight of Honor, whose noble mission is in the way of charity and good.

The members of Clinton Lodge, No. 3409, of this excellent and rapidly spreading order, at 10 o'clock, at the close of its regular meeting on last Friday night, adjourned to a banquet spread at the Clinton hotel. "Mine Host," Robins is to be congratulated on the excellent preparation of the same. The social occasion will long be pleasantly remembered by each member of the order, and it is hoped that it will be often repeated. Well filled plates with the compliments of the lodge were sent to Rev. L. McKinnon and Mr. W. H. Moore.

Accidental Killing.

(Special to THE CAUCASIAN.)
KENANSVILLE, N. C.,
October 22nd, 1889.

Mr. David Williamson, of Kenansville township, Duplin county, on his way home, on the 19th inst., from a deer hunt, while in a boat crossing the Jere Lake, in Gushen Swamp, let his gun slip, causing the hammer to strike the boat and both barrels to empty their loads into his brain, from which he died instantly. The deceased was a worthy citizen and left, surviving him, a wife and three small children.

Mr. D. S. Cox, THE CAUCASIAN's Duplin correspondent, is, probably, improving slightly.

"Remarkably Successful."

We are indebted to Brother Herbert, of the Kinston Free Press, for the following kind notice:
The CLINTON CAUCASIAN, edited by Marion Butler, is seven years old. It has been edited a little more than a year by its present editor, who has been remarkably successful with it. It is a good paper and has a large subscription and advertising patronage. We are pleased at your success brother Butler.

Boykin—Bowden.

Under this head the Wilmington Messenger has the following to say of the marriage of our townsman, Mr. Frank Boykin, in that city last Tuesday night:

A very happy event was that which occurred last night at Grace church in this city the marriage of Mr. B. F. Boykin, a prominent gentleman from Clinton, and Miss Julia A. Bowden, the lovely and popular daughter of our townsman, Mr. L. H. Bowden. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion, and there was present one of the largest gatherings ever assembled to witness a marriage in this city. The gaudium knot was tied by the Rev. W. S. Cressy, and the attendants were as follows: Mr. W. N. Jacobs, of Wilmington, with Miss Maudie Boykin of Clinton; Mr. J. C. Shumate of Clinton, with Miss Sallie E. King, of Wilmington; Mr. D. S. Boykin, of Wilson, with Miss Lillian Bowden, of Wilmington; Mr. W. A. Hobbs, of Clinton, with Miss Mollie Hawes, of Wilmington; Mr. L. Tate Bowden and Miss Florence Alderman, both of Wilmington. The ushers were Messrs. Jas. W. Monroe, B. F. Hawes, E. W. Moore, Joe Clark, Moseley Hubbard and H. W. Bragg. After the ceremony was over the bride party retired to the residence of Mr. Bowden, where an elegant reception was held. The bride and groom, after receiving many congratulations, left on the 12:05 train last night on a Northern tour.

PERSONALS.

Mr. James K. Morisey left last Friday for Winston, where he takes a position as clerk with a large tobacco house.

Messrs. W. A. Hobbs, J. C. Shumate and Senator E. W. Kerr, left Tuesday to attend the marriage of Mr. B. F. Boykin, in Wilmington on Tuesday night.

Master Richard Hubbard, son of our townsman, T. L. Hubbard, left a few days ago for Fayetteville, where he takes a position with Mr. D. H. Bell in a grocery.

Miss Agnes V. Wedding, daughter of Mr. John R. Wedding, foreman of THE CAUCASIAN office, has returned to Clinton from a three months' visit to friends in Nashville.

Miss Annie Giddens returned Monday night from a visit to the State Fair and Goldsboro. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. Frank Giddens, who returned the following Tuesday morning to Goldsboro.

The following persons from Clinton have attended the Goldsboro Fair: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevens, Mrs. W. E. Stevens and little daughter, Myrtle, Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Mr. M. C. Richardson and daughter, Miss Muriel, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Lee, Dr. J. A. Stevens, Miss Carrie Mann, Messrs. F. P. Hobbs, R. C. Holmes, W. T. Williamson, Bob Williamson, M. E. Hobbs, Jno. Russell, Thos. Killett. There are others that went whose names we were not able to learn.

Queens of the Banquet.

The third meeting of "The Young Ladies' Cooking Club," which was held at Capt. W. L. Faison's, on Tuesday night, resulted in another most happy and enjoyable occasion. We voice the unanimous sentiments of the young men present when we say that the feast spread proved the members of the Club to be veritable banquet Queens. The next meeting of the Club is to be Tuesday evening, two weeks hence; November 5th, at Elliott's—the home of Miss Florence Faison, the President of the Club. May its meetings never scale nor postpone.

"AN EXCELLENT PAPER."

"Sound Progressive and has the Right Ring".
(State Chronicle)

The Clinton CAUCASIAN has entered on its seventh volume. It is an excellent paper, sound, progressive and has the right ring. It is an honor to Clinton and Sampson county, and its talented and educated editor is doing good and winning fame.
